Goal 15 "Life on Land" and its Background

(Goals)

- Protect, restore and promote sustainable use of ecosystems on land
- Sustainably manage forests and combat desertification
- Halt land degradation and biodiversity loss

Targets (SDG 15 targets related to forests)

- 15.1 To ensure the conservation, restoration and sustainable use of ecosystems and their services, in particular forests and so on.
- 15.2 To promote sustainable management of forests and substantially increase afforestation and reforestation globally
- 15.5 To take action to reduce the degradation of natural habitats, and to halt the loss of biodiversity

Background Our lives depend on the land and on various living creatures. Forests play an especially important role in climate change mitigation, conservation of biodiversity, protection of soil and water quality, reducing the risk of natural disaster, and providing resources such as wood. However, mainly in the developing countries, forests and forest-dwelling creatures are decreasing year after year due to diversion of land to agricultural use, illegal logging, excessive logging of firewood charcoal materials, forest fires and so on. Goal 15 was made to prevent such abuse and to protect life on land.

Nippon Paper Group and Goal 15

In order to contribute toward the goal, we need to increase the positive effects, and minimize the negative impact of activities throughout our value chain*. Here are some ways our group's activities relate to SDG15. Let's all be aware of other examples and how we can improve our performance.

* Value chain: the entire sequence of activities or parties that provide or receive value in the form of products or service
