• Paper(Domestic)

- Sales volume significantly decreased due to page number reduction on newspapers and sluggish demand of printing papers for advertising.
- Cost reduction target in 3Q was achieved as planned.

• Paperboard(Domestic)

• Overall sales volume decreased because the number of inbound tourists and the demand for industrial use decreased despite firm demand for processed foods, mail order, and other applications.

• Oversea business

• Both Jujo Thermal and SNP saw solid earnings, despite decrease in sales due to Covid-19.

• Package (Operating income Variance -4.3)*

- Opal
 - The profit of the former AP is in big decline. Copy paper sales significantly decreased due to Covid-19. In addition, export market has remained sluggish.
 - The former Orora sales volume on corrugated boxes for produce and meat applications decreased due to Covid-19.

• Nippon Dynawave Packaging (NDP)

• Sales volume decreased due to Covid-19.

• Paper cartons (Domestic)

• Sales and operating income increased due to the installation of new filling machines and steady demand for milk cartons for home-use.

* Including goodwill amortization costs related to the acquisition of Paperboard's Package division in Australia and New Zealand from Orora.
